One by one the bricks they lay
Riding over the back
Of broken and bruised
People they say

Dedication

I would like to dedicate this book to Jacques and Hanneke Truther from Beulah Christian Retreat thank you for never giving up on me for arms wide open, unconditional love, help and believing in my healing.

Acknowledgement

So many family, friends and authors walked the poems of hope road with me that it would be impossible to mention each and every person. Know that I could not have done this without each encouraging word, love and support. May you all be blessed to be a blessing.... Then to all the Poems of Hope members may you grow from strength to strength and let us give hope through our experiences to others that need it.... You are enough...

About the author

12 years of back and forward trials and tribulations, from psychiatric hospitals to retreat's, and much more Charlotte eventually hit rock bottom no more strength and will to fight what God had for her. She booked herself into a retreat and there God started a transformation in her life by His Grace. Every healing transformation period in her life she overcame she began to write poems. God gave her a vision on the 3rd of January 2019 Poems of hope, and she began to give hope through her poems to hurting souls.

A roller coaster ride... Living a double life of self-sabotaging happiness, Co-dependent relationships and wanting to serve God, started at the age of 9 years old and carried well into her 40's. At the age of 3 she was in a horrific car accident with her family and there the enemy placed lies upon her life.

Her healing journey at Beulah Christian Retreat, morning star, lie's verses God's truth, and love is a choice she wants to share with other hurting souls, addicts and people searching for the truth giving hope through her poems.

It's not how many times she fell but how many times she stood up. Proverbs 24:16
"The godly may trip seven times, but they will get up again."

Charlotte Viljoen is the founder of Poems of Hope. Poems of hope is growing rapidly where she carries messages of hope through her poems.

Her love and passion for hurting souls, addicts, recovering addicts and humility towards pain one carries is known throughout her life. Lies verses God's truth, dying to self and knowing that she could not had done this at all but only through the guidance, intervention of the Holy Spirit and by the blood of Jesus.

Ephesian 2 verse 8-9: For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast.

Author's Note

God's word tells us in Romans 8 v 28 "and we know that all things work together for good to those who love God; to those who are called according to His purpose".

I believe that what the enemy has intended for evil or bad in my life, God turned it around for good.

God made a way where there seemed to be no way. He worked in ways I could not see, He made a way for me. He is my God, He held me close to His side, with love and strength for each new day, He made a way. My roadway in the wilderness He led me. Rivers in the desert I saw. Heaven and earth will fade but His truth will still remain, He does something new each day.

The aim of this book is to give hope through my poems to hurting souls. No matter how many times you fall God is faithful enough... 2 Thessalonians 3:3 But the Lord is faithful. He will establish you and guard you against the evil one.

It shows how I believed the lies of the enemy, how these lies influenced my life, how I replaced it with God's truth and understand that no matter my situation no matter what I have done, when I drew closer to the Almighty God He drew closer to me. Psalm 34 v 4+5 says: "I sought the Lord, and He answered me from all my fears. Those who look to Him are radiant, and their faces shall never be shamed".

Throughout my healing I believed and prayed Ps 139 v 23+24 over my life: "Search me, O God and know my heart, try me and know my anxious thoughts, see if there are any hurtful ways in me and lead me in the everlasting way".

Prayer: Investigate my life O God find out everything about me cross examine and test me get a clear picture of what I'm about see for yourself if I've done anything wrong then guide me on the road to eternal life.

2 Chronicles 7 v14: "if my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land".

Hebrews 3 v 7+8: "Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says: "Today, if you will hear His voice, Do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, In the day of trial in the wilderness" ...

God took every bad situation in my life and turned it for good. His power was especially released as I learned to thank Him and to put my trust in Him.

Proverbs 3 v 5+6: “Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your steps”.

Even though you seem to be on your own, you never are. His son Jesus Christ has fulfilled His promise to be with you always. The word of God tells us in Hebrews 13 v 5 that “I will never leave you nor forsake you”.

Isaiah 53:5 but he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.

I would like to thank my first Love my Heavenly Father for the inspiration, direction and guidance in my life. For working so gently, softly and tender with me. For always being there for never giving up on me and for showing me that You are God.

In my time of healing God gave me over 80 poems as I got healing and breakthrough in certain areas of my life. Then God said every poem is a testimony on its own. It is such an honour to share my healing journey with you.

When I think about all the people around me who have achieved long term sobriety, healing and breakthrough, they are always helpful people, always. Not one of them is so self-centred that they are generally not helpful to others.

This has to be a fundamental trait of success. When we reach out and help others, some powerful things happen. Not only do we genuinely get to help another people, but we also get a huge bonus to our own recovery. We reinforce the lessons in the word of God that we ourselves need to follow to stay sober and clean and turn from our wicked ways.

Thus prevent our own relapse to temptation, because we give ourselves permission to value own life more. We know we are providing real value. Being helpful is a universal trait of success in recovery.

Step 12 program from recovery of addictive behaviour. Having had a spiritual awakening as the result of the 12 steps, I try to carry this message to others and to practice these principles in all of my life with the grace and guidance of the Holy Spirit.

I learned that for the most part, in life, I got what I believed I deserved and that much of life truly is a self-fulfilling prophecy. I learned that anything worth achieving is worth working for and that wishing for something to happen is different than working toward making it happen by listening to the voice of God and asking Him for guidance and then just start.

I want to tell the world that God can turn your mess into a message there is hope for tomorrow. His name is Jesus. He painted my past, present and future red. He healed my heart and set me free. Now there is grace by His great love.

My pain became my inspiration....

Poems of Hope

Together we stand
Hand in hand
Helping each other
Your my brother

Addiction recovery
Depression and pain
Guilt and shame
Has no name

Step by step
Day by day
Strength to strength
Come what may
We WILL pray

With God our Father
Holy Spirit side by side
We free

Our mess is a message
For the world to see
Who God created us to be

No more tears
No more lies

With Courage
Love
And dignity

The Cyrus Heart

A chill went through my spine
As I held the sword in my right hand
This will be the start
Of the Cyrus heart

Hidden riches in a secret place
Treasures of darkness
By His Grace

A shepherd performing God's vision
All God's desires
Proclaiming my right to God's provision

Receiving God's plan, resources and tools
Used for His glory
Changed my life story

I believe standing up
Truly walking in faith
Hearing Him say

Trials and tribulations will come your way
Facing many battles
Rocking up for the fight
With might

Never giving up
For the promise of God
Stored inside
No need to hide

You going to work through the Cyrus heart
To conquer waiting patiently from the start

Recognising the promises unseen hand of God
Over my life
Walking in distance and strength with a guard

Finishing the job
God is always there
You will open doors
No need for despair

Gates will not shut
Protection to your family
Provision to overcome
Let His will be done

Knowing God can replace
Humbling doing what I face
What God asks
Moving into Royalty

Searching council from God
Understanding grace
I had to face
God will send Prophecies God already placed
In my heart from the start

Discovering moving creating wealth
To fulfil God's purpose
Being in health

Rebuilding the temple in Jerusalem
For the sake of Jacob you will see Seeking guidance from God
Walking in my destiny

Moving into rest
Placing petitions at His feet
I would like you to meet
Cyrus heart will defeat

Living on the run

You haven't experienced true love before
You only know abuse, lust and so much more

But give me the chance
To show you true love

Love is a peacemaker
Love is kind
Love is warm
Love embraces
Love, loves the old and the new you

If you can't grow with me
You can't go with me

Into your destiny
If you could see who you are now
And who you going to be

So many nights
So many days
You kept running
You were afraid
You felt unsafe
You ran to the South,
You ran from the North
East and west
You ran back you ran forward
Back and forward

My child stop running
Just stop running
I love you who you are

You running from your own gifts
You running from fear
You running from being hurt
From being you

From whom I created you to be

This is not you this guilt you have Stop pretending to be tough Tougher than you are Your fear has made you cold and weak
If you stop running
You will find the power
To live forward

Peace of mind
Peace within ME you will find

My people are waiting
Can't you see
Become who I created you to be

I'll take you to the mountain top
To show you who I Am
That I Am God

Co-dependency

Co-dependency an addiction to people behaviour and things Controlling inner feelings by controlling other beings Controlled out by another
Another person's feelings

I don't want this life anymore
Being dependant addicted and so much more
Drugs, chemicals and things trying to open every wrong door

Tormented by the way things were Feeling empty worthless no self esteem
Looking to other to see what they mean

Digging deep
Digging strong
Where do I belong?

Author: Charlotte Viljoen

Empty and ashamed

In all honesty
How could it be?
A baby inside of me

Excited Scared all emotions at once
Planning on how I'm going to tell you Tell you at once

As I looked into your eyes
As I'm telling you
I saw the rage the despise
The hate in your eyes

Get behind me
Take a pill
This is not part of the planning so chill

But I want this baby
Can't we just make a plan maybe

Screaming and shouting crying and beg
Nothing is going to help only if I fled
Then I realised where should I go?
I have no income and another child to fed

Nowhere to go
No place to stay
I had no choice but to give you up that day

As I lay on the table
Feeling each scrape they made
Little by little blow by blow
They pulled out a part of my soul
I knew whatever I felt you felt that day

Numb by the pain
Not by my pain but knowing my dear child your pain

I deserved feeling empty and ashamed

I don't deserve to live
I deserve to die
I don't deserve to be happy
Or to ever change a child's nappy

Hiding behind others
Not facing who I am
I built a wall
And started to crawl

Lord forgive me
For taking the life of your creation
Of an innocent baby that way

Feeding the inner villain

Or the inner hero inside
I needed to hide

I felt the battle going on
I don't deserve to feed the hero
The villain is a bond
Significantly influence my life
I lost sight

Lowering my confidence
The villain is eating away
I can't even pray

The inner villain feedings off
Of what can bring me down
With a frown

Author: Charlotte Viljoen

Who do you think you are?

Who do you think you are?
Trying to make a little girl your star

So many years
In denial
Put myself on trial

Trying to look the other way
Scares running so deep
Not even a weep or peep

Taking abuse from the outside
Fixing my hair everyday a different way
Just to take the attention off
Of my scares that way

You said no one will believe
You said what I think is a lie
I won't come buy
I'll only cry

Looking back at your poor excuses
Realising your abuses
I'm taking back what you stole
No more do you have control

Because of your abuse
I lived in denial
The Effect your abuse
Made me very sad

Trying to twist and turn my brain
Trying to play your game

Just as I was supposed to do
Then you came and took off my shoe

You took me to a place I never felt safe
But then you made me feel

I was helping you heal

I forgive you from my heart
Because I need a clean start

God showed me true love
True love from above

He took my pain
He healed my name
For the first time I feel the same

Survival mode

People could do things to me
I couldn't do anything about
So small I wanted to shout
Please just leave me out

Grownups are always right
Children are seen not heard
This made me feel I couldn't say no
It's so absurd

Physically and emotionally drained
All in my head
It only took a matter of time
To make me feel dead

Living in fear
Don't trust anyone to come near

I lost my life that day
All I had was my name
But that was in vain
I constantly needed to plan ahead
And planned to run away
But couldn't
You had my soul
And took control

Now I'm going into hiding
Survival mode they say
It helps me get through every single day

I went through life in auto mode
Hiding, pain and shame
And Year by year
Had nothing to say

I need to run away
It gives me control

Taking back my soul
Maybe I'll feel whole

I hated my life before
I blamed myself for opening that door
I've been hurt so many times before

The only time I felt safe
Is when I go into that place
Whatever I could find
To numb my mind

You stole my childhood, peace and friends
You stole my joy
You stole moments with my family
You made me your toy

Respect for another
You took my boundaries and made it your own
Couldn't you just Google on your phone

Seeking security from men
Comfort and acceptance too

Self-protection
Was the name of the game
The enemy wanted fame
No more lies
You're not in disguise

God was standing at the door
By His blood He covered me
And so much more

His blood is my protection
I am free
He cleansed and purified me

For many years you tried to steal
What God had planned for me
No more will I enter into these lies you placed on me

Now it has no more effect

God was always by my side
He held my hand
Today proudly I stand

Do we really know?

Do we really know what's going on around us?
Do we really know?

So focused on our own lives
Do we really know?

It made me realise
It made me think
Do I really want my room pink?

Do I want a labelled jean?
Do I want a life from a movie scene?

This is not what I want
I have too much to give

I have survived
I have a gift
I have someone you need to meet

Jesus is His name
He came and changed my name and game

From ashes to beauty
Today I found
A new sound
Jesus is the way
The truth
And the light
I'll fight for you to see His might

I don't know what life would bring
But I'd love to sing to the King

I'd love to hold a child in my arms and see miracles too
I'd love to pack a bag of food and give it out in the hood

Today I pray

God make a way
I want to give hope
Teach people to cope

God the Father and His Son will take your troubles one by one

God is your hope yes
He taught me to cope

Consecration

Operating in my gift Serving and deserving
Helping others is there need
No greed only to succeed

Then You came to me and said
In 3 days you will enter Jordan instead

Preparing not knowing what to find
With 12 white stones I combined
Writing every promise God gave Can't wait to see what He has made

Jeremiah 29 v 11-13
I know there is more of You and more from You than I have right now
You have gifted me in so many ways Lord
What is it You want from me
I'm finally ready to be free

Now here I am in front of the Jordan
And how to grow

It's time to cross the Jordan
A time to enjoy Your presence
A time to be sanctified and washed with clothes
In the patience in the waiting, You make me holy
You make me strong
You filled me with a song

Show me that this consecrating moment is a choice moment in You and me
A moment that would never be repeated
When You launch me out into my destiny in You
I will not have quiet hours in the same way anymore
When the consecrating is completed the action begins
And to act well I need to know the secrets of the fullness of Your presence in me
From You Lord

The secrets of receiving strategy
The secrets of moving at this impulse of Your Spirit
Every moment is in itself my destiny
There is a greater destiny ahead of me

There is always more in you
As I stand righteous before You Lord with a Cyrus heart
I now enter through the Jordan
And leave everything behind

I will obey You Father and with my riches I will complete Your vision on earth
I love You Father God

Anointed energised motivated and free
I looked at my cell phone who could it be
I message from the enemy saying to my face
I don't want you I have someone else to take your place

Torn tormented confused can it be
My husband my friend my life
Is it the end?

God new what's coming He prepared the way
He said you would be surprised who will be with you at the end of the day

Now have faith in Me
And you will see
Who I created you to be

Destiny – I will rise again

Destiny O destiny where can you be Looking for you every where Is it in PE?

Then I had to search my body mind and soul
Transforming and renewing
Got cut to the bone
A Journey on my own

Presenting my body as sacrifice
Denying myself advice

My bloodline needed cleansing
My seed-line too
My DNA with bread and wine re-sequencing

I had to go much deeper
Getting exposed and weaker
I'm going to find my destiny
With Patience faith
From Him to me

Don't grow weary and loose heart
The enemy always places fear and doubt from the start

I received the fire
And the wind too
In the midst of His cleansing and remodelling too

I will rise again I screamed
Then suddenly I realised the Promised Land is me
My redemptive gifts came forth
Now I know who I am and who God created me to be My destiny is within me

Your greatest miracle

Is in your scary place
A place you need to face

A miracle you build
To reach your dream
You have to scream

You will never find your wings
In the safety of Comfortable things

You will learn to fly
By confronting the sky

In the process
Flapping and falling
That's how you get Your wings

Fear makes you stronger
Flight or fight
Out of fear You draw near

Fear makes you
Withstand the test
To do your best

Greatness festers in Isolation and frustration
God scare me again

You only win
If you don't quit
In a dark scary
Flapping and falling place
You will find Grace

Every great leader
Will be tested by pain
No one escapes by name

Births out of fear
Not the spirit of fear
But a place

Morning Star

Your land shall be called Beulah
A place of rest and peace
Hear His voice Restoration
Worship and feast

The Fathers eye
The Fathers voice
Grow in Spirit
You will rejoice

You will learn to cope
You will learn to overcome
The effects one by one

New hope you'll find
A Relationship with God the Father combined

A Family of 5 you will see
God's grace upon grace
Goodness divine free
May His favour and mercy abundance supply

His Blood

Hi little One
Don't be afraid
You've been so strong
Listen to my song

Come take my hand
Tell me your pain

I've always been there
I've seen your struggle
I've seen your care

Take my hand
Let's not compare

Your long black hair
Your big green eyes
Your beauty
Your smile
That makes all things while

You not alone
You've done so well
Being brave
Looking in front of you seeing the grave

It's safe now
You don't have to pretend
You don't have to punish God's here to amend

Forgiveness and mercy
From now on will show
His blood has washed you
Clean as snow

Your laughter
Is forever after

Step out of your effect
What the enemy has set
For God has a plan
It's not in vain

Your gifts
Your calling
The meaning of your name

Put on your crown
My daughter come near

From today on Righteous you stand
Together forever
I've taken your hand

Ashes for beauty
Shame for love
Today I choose to fly like a dove

Author: Charlotte Viljoen

God's Heart

As I bow before Your door
Waiting upon You Lord

Don't know what to expect
Anxious Scared
Don't know what's next

You came to me and said with love
Come fly like a dove

Then I entered the heavens Gates
Up the stairs I flew
People I've seen before
My Daddy helping me
Enter into so much more

Jesus was the door post
But with a scroll in His hand
God the Father on a chair
His sandals in the sand

With the Holy Spirit by my side
I see the scroll in Jesus's hand
Owe no I'm banned

Then from a deep but calm voice above
The Father said
My Dove Righteous one
I'm so proud of who you've become

You've been through so much
Don't compromise
You've come so far
You have a constant conscious of who you really are

Here take my heart
And give me yours
From now on I'll open doors

I cried and cried to hear Him say
I'm actually okay

His heart I felt warm strong and pure
Overwhelmed by His Glory I had no fear

God, the Holy Spirit and His Son
Knew me
One by one

My child go back from where you came
Take my heart it's not a game

With love, compassion, kindness and pure
You will wash the feet of whom are near

My Identity

Living your life through me
I couldn't form my identity

Telling me what to wear
Making choices choosing the bear and how I should comb my hair

You were so busy helping him
Try to understand
A perfect home
A perfect place
Open for every case

Making your house a home
From Italy to Rome
Speaking to each other
I'm "Big Brother"
Watching every move you make From the Office
To baking a cake

You did the best you could
You were thriving
You had a voice
But still I (I) had no choice

Then suddenly a part of me
Wanted to be free

Not getting the love I thought I need
Nurturance, freedom and a seed
I started to feed the villain
For everyone to see
What became of ME????!!!!

My love tank running empty
The girl down the street
Gave me something I needed and a sweet

Out of my pain

I started to create and Complicate

I couldn't understand
Why can I not take another girls hand

Years and Years went by feeding the villain
I felt shy

Not coming out
Maybe I'm gay

Outward I was who you wanted me to be
From dressing me up
Combing my hair
To entertaining and singing

Inward I created
The little girl inside of me
My own identity

Spiritual Warfare....

Feeling Victory

Don't lose sight
Or you going to fight

For the enemy
Walks around
To see who he can find
Opening a door
He will bring more

Being tormented
This is no game
In His name

I can't take this no more
My heart broken
Can't fight this war

With God the Father

Praying and playing
Songs of praise
Checking up to see

I'm so grateful to find
Friends who care

When I'm weak
He is strong
How can I go wrong?

A spiritual warfare
I can't ask for more
Stepping in we declare war

Humbly I bow down
Again I take the crown
On my knees
Lord help me please

With the Armour shofar
God's word and prayer
A bow and arrow
Defeat Triumph Victory

The chains are broken
God has spoken

Cheers

Who do you think you are?
Going around
Seeing who you can find

When you drew near
I had no fear

Looking at people
Defined who I was Taking one line

Numb my mind

When I was weak
I thought you wear strong

But when I realised you no longer belong
I became strong and you
You don't belong

Minding my own business
You would draw me near
A fight that became so clear
I don't have control you took my soul

Not only do I still have pain
But you took my name

I'm going to fall
Then I put words against the wall

You not going to change my name

I am who God says I am
I can do what God says I can do
I can have what God says I can have
And I can be what God says I can be

I declare Victory

You no longer part of me
My Co-dependency
You will always be
But no longer part of me

Cheers drugs I have no fears
With God on my side
He who provides
The love I need

Step aside
Or rather You too weak
I have defeated

Pray by pray
You will move further away

Cravings

I took a walk
To the mountain
Crying all the way

Fighting these cravings
Every second of the day

Breath by breath
I'll fight this
Come what may

This is going to be hard
I'm going to suffer, crawl, weep
O God I surrender my flesh
Hear me as I speak

I don't have the power
I don't have the strength
But what I do have is the will
To overcome
And you said
Let your will be done

It's going to be hard
Surrendering my flesh unto God

My soul was in control
No more lies
The enemy disguise
My body mind and soul
God has control

As the cravings come
Not giving me a chance
To take a breath
To take a rest
I realize

How many times a day
I've been listening to this craving voice
Stealing time
Not giving me a choice

Now every time this craving voice
Shows up again
I'll have a choice
To bow to this craving
Or Listen to His voice

So craving listen carefully
Every time you appear
I'm going into heavens atmosphere

I'll drink from the fountain
I'll sit by His feet
I'll eat from His garden
With God we will defeat

So it is done
God has won

My Craving Serenity Prayer

Lord grant me the courage to change the things I want to change
Thank you for the resources You have put into place
I accept full responsibility
I stand venerable before You God Infinite mercy and grace
Naked I will stand
Through this decision I will brake
The shame over my name

Love

What is love?
What does it mean?
Is it something
From a movie scene

Love is something I had to work for
In my brokenness I believed love I did not achieve

To me love was temporary
Love was unfair
If I don't do what they say
You will never experience love come what may

I couldn't see love
Even if I tried
I looked for something
I could not have recognised

I would look at someone Showing me love
And think what on earth do you want?
Or what do you need?

Bit by bit
I became whole
Inside out upside down searching my soul

Then I realised
Love is something I accept
Love has no price to pay
You get it for free
A gift so pure for me
Love has a different face
Love I can embrace
Love is an invitation
As I accepted love
The flood gates of heaven opened from above

I can open that door

They say love is forever more

As I start to recognise love and walk that way
My eyes saw things from above
My ears heard whispers
My soul felt pain
An intense love for others became
The world needs this name

If we could only see love
In other people's eyes
If we could only hear the love cry in others voice

For every hand that stretches out
We could stop the drought

This could change the world

Love is a choice

Forgiveness

A choice I make
Not a feeling
For my own sake

You no longer have power
A decision even if it takes an hour

Forgiveness not an emotion
God's direction
Bringing my life into motion

Bitterness repressed
Un-forgiveness sours
In my heart
In my soul
You no longer have control

I'm not a victim to forgive
It's from a position of strength

I acknowledge my rage
Grief and hurt
Turning a new page

From now on I'll forgive
Faster than I forget

Because my heart is pure as snow
I want to grow

Obedying God is what I want
You no longer have power

I take my hart
From bondage
A clean start

Guilt & Shame

What is this I'm feeling?
Sudden pain in my being
A rush of darkness
My mind flashing back
Of the past mistakes I made

Bent forward
Holding my heart
Rushing Thoughts
From the start

Tears streaming down my face
Weeping so true
Coming from an inner place of where I've never been
Is this a place I have to face

Struggling to take a breath
This pain has it a name Trying to contain

This sudden rush of pain
In my heart
In my soul
In my body
Can't stay in control

Letting it out its all I could do
Impossible to try to contain
What the hell was I thinking?
How could I have been so cruel?
Making all the rules

I couldn't stand my face
And the presence of whom I am Trying to run away
From this shadow astray

As I turn it turns
As I walk it walks

As I crawl it crawls
Get away from me
Can't you see?
You not part of me

Broken bruised and accused
I lay beside my bed
In a puddle of shame
Surrounded by my name

I have to be strong
What in the world is going on?

Facing all my effects
Dealing with all this pain
Seeing who I hurt
And seeing the shame

As the shadow and I became one
I felt my body numb
To feel the enemy right inside of me

I wasted so much time
I've broke so many hearts
I don't deserve to live
It's better to just apart

Again a selfish act
To run away and leave people behind
Just face the truth and face the fact
And get your act together
You've been given another chance Advance
To face this feeling you have

Talking to the shadow and trying to flee
Is the shadow me?

Hi Guilt is my name
And if you don't pluck out my root
I'm going to poison you from your head to your foot
I'll rob you from your dignity

I'll cripple you from the pain
I'll rob you from moving forward
To experiencing true freedom
And everlasting love

From experiencing Gods glory
So deal with your life story

So many people are praying
People I don't even know
Around the clock
On their knees
In the bushes
Between the trees

I've been given a second chance
More than many can say
I've been taken care of Every single day

Supported by my friends and family that way
Then I realised so many peoples love
Trying to help me stand out of the shadows hand

That night I tried to nailed myself to the cross
For every sin I committed I acquitted
Couldn't handle the cross alone
Stripped to the bone
I cried out to the Lord please take my cross I own

I heard Jesus say
It's already taken care of on Calvary that day
All you need to do is to walk in your victory
Now that shadow is you in me

My Son

I've always wanted only the best
For You Daddy and Me
From the day they put you in my arms
No better life could be

Your perfect smile
Made all things while
I loved you from the moment I felt you inside of me

Then life began
Daddy wanted to go back from where he came
I couldn't leave the family and Daddy wanted to be free
We loved each other and made the choice that Daddy would go abroad back not me
I couldn't go to a country where war and no work would be

Then Mommy tried to survive
Operated on what she knew
Out of hurt abuse I grew
Into something I did not want you to view

I saw you close the windows
I saw you lock the door
I saw you clean the house
And mop the floor

Thank you for being the man
For taking so much control
I wasn't even your work
You were a small little boy

Sometimes I would get angry
And say ugly things to you
Out of my hurt I took it out on an innocent lovely boy you

What I did was wrong
Treating you that way
You took care of your mommy
Her friends every day

I ask your forgiveness
For not being the Mommy I was supposed to be
For not giving you protection
And security

I didn't know what love was Because of my brokenness inside

From now on I want to be
The parent I ought to be
If you would please give me a chance
To be your Mommy I'd love to be

It's never too late
A clean slate
With God in our heart

Ungodly Sole tie

No matter how you feel
Never disconnect
From the people I put in place

They there to keep you safe
To keep you strong
All night long

Break the ungodly sole tie
I want you to be free
So go down on your knee
The blood of Jesus
Will set you free

The enemy tries
And comes with all his lies

But don't you know
What God intend
Don't amend

I've told you
So many times before
Not to open that door

Fill your room with Romans
Meditate on His word
Start a war room
Begin to pray
Now is the time
Come what may

Then on my knees
I cried
Lord in the name of Jesus
Help me please

I break this ungodly sole ties
The chain on my name

I give back
What I took

I take back
What you took from me
So that I can be free
No weapon formed against me

Fill me with your Spirit Lord
Cover me with your blood

No more strange behaviours
No more co-dependency
No more flee
Your blood has purified me

Thank you Lord
For showing me on the board
What the enemy tried to hide
I will stay in Your word
I will pray every day

You are my guide
I am free
You purified me

Good bye

Sitting on the floor
God already prepared to open the door

Look in my eye
It's time to say good bye

Little one you may go
Go to Jesus
Go home as He pleases

But I don't want to
Who is going to take care of me?
How will I be free?

I don't know how to be alone
To be a child on my own

I have a responsibility
I have to show you who to be

Come sit on my lap
I'll wait till the time is right
Don't fight

Please come with me
To sit on His lap
So that I can be free

As You held me in Your arms
I felt safe as You opened the gate
I could see heaven waiting for me
My friends waving and playing
A place I always wanted to be

I can be a child now
I can play
I'm safe through heavens gates

I don't need to be a grownup

I don't need to meet your needs
I don't need to take care of you
Or to be tuff or to please
I want to go and play
I want to play in the rain

I jumped off His lap
And never looked back

A place I've always wanted to be
I feel so free
Thank you for letting me be

As Charlie went off
I felt such a relief

She was high maintenance
She kept me back from being me

She made the decisions
She chose the friends
She knew how to operate and how to pretend

I can see her playing in the park
With her white dress laughing giggling in the dark

She's happy
Happier than she would ever be
In the park under the tree

I blessed her as she left
We both happy now

Suddenly I felt alone
But then with dignity a woman came to comfort me
As a women I was accepted
In the spiritual realm women welcomed me

I felt honoured
I felt free
And fell to my knee
Walking today in my destiny

Favour with God

I've seen your struggle
I've seen so much despair

But what I found in you
Your dedication so true
Your task and calling
Today is not a day of mourning or warning
But of your ultimate calling

I'm pleased to say
You have reached physical and mental maturity
You on your way
To handle major responsibility
Come what may

You grew in stature and wisdom
Favour with God you will find

Jesus suffered and shed His precious blood
With your love
You paid the price
You gave advice

This is your time
To shine

You ripe for leadership to reign
I proclaim
In Jesus name
For what your about to receive
Do not let the enemy deceive
It was in your heart
From the start
Take up the promises
I gave

From now on
You will see victory

Because
I am
In me
It has come to be

Prosperity
Abundance
You will see
Just don't forget ME

Where did I go wrong?

Seeing her struggle
Seeing his pain
Where did I go wrong?
The child I held
In my arms
A bond so strong
Where did I go wrong?

She weighs less than primary school
The sores on her face
Slamming the door such a disgrace
Where did I go wrong?

Tormented by my own
No place safe called home

I fell to my knees
Said God please
Where did I go wrong?

I heard God say
Do you love her?
O Yes indeed
Then it's time to plant the seed

Give her to me
Don't you know who I created her to be?

Have faith in Me and you will See the victory

Lies verses God's Truth

In a situation
Identify the lie
What the enemy has placed
For you and I

What do I feel?
What emotion comes to mind?
What previous situation may I find?

Holy Spirit what do I believe
That lie did I conceive

Can I choose God to replace the lie?
With what I need

Our Father who art in heaven
Hallow be They name
I repent this lie I believe
The lies of my generation and me

I take authority over this thought
And replace it with Your truth

I forgive myself and ask you Lord
To forgive forevermore
I receive the truth of your word
Your Spirit as guidance too
Renewing of my mind I'll find
The lie no longer mine no more

Twinkle in your Eye

Is it a twinkle I see in your eyes
Is it a smile
Are you happy for the first time

Well done you faced the truth
You dealt with every demon every giant and your youth

From now on your reward
Is the twinkle in your eyes
The corner smile that makes it worth while
Your smile

Mercy is the path you will walk each day
Your gifts
Your calling

Put on your crown
My daughter come near

Connecting with the heart of God
Hearing Him as He speaks
Taking every word
To the people you meet

Poems is the tool you will use
Humility in the room you will be Helping you to stay free

The Pink Cloud

Riding on the pink cloud
One foot on the cloud and the other on the ground

Feeling happy and excited
No more co-dependencies

After feeling numb for so long
It's wonderful to feel alive again
I'm not wrong

My excessive positive outlook
Lead to overconfidence
I started to lose sight
I didn't have to fight
Of the crucial day to day
Self-monitoring
I don't need
Look at me what I've achieved

Me I, I heard God say
Your flesh needs to die

Standing alone
Saying no to temptations
And sensations

But suddenly I lost sight
I had no might Falling off the Pink Cloud
No crowd to see
What became of me?

Hopeless helpless can it be
The trigger inside of me

Relapsed did I find Losing sight of the effects

The enemy placed
All around I found

The same people the same places
The dealers the mingles
Ignoring won't make it go away
Worsen after a period of time

Today I have to find
A fix
Next to bricks

Smoking taking a deep-deep breath
Coughing sneezing
My head wheezing

I'm not used to this anymore
Why did I dear open that door?

The cycle began
Guilt and shame
The meaning of my name

How long will I condemn
What God wants to amend

Down on my knees
Again Lord please
Take this part of me

When I am weak
You are strong
No more do I belong
In this world
IT'S NO LONGER PART OF ME

It's a choice
That's all it is
Be at ease

Come as you are You not far

Step by step
You further than many can say
You're my daughter come what may

Innocent Eyes

Looking in those innocent eyes
Children playing no disguise

I remember the days
I'd take care of those innocent cuddle bears

Then life began and I ran from what God had planned for me

I built a wall
Between me and seeing kids crawl wanting to be free

Then my wall came down bit by bit
Just enough to see
Those tiny little hands climbing up a tree

I feel a hunger deep inside as I stand next to what I had banned

Are they really waiting for me?
With arms wide open
Can it be they so part of me?

Because of my pain
Because of my shame
I couldn't hold a child's hand or play in the sand

Then I took my colouring in book
And began to see
A part of me always wanted to climb a tree

I'm ready to look into those innocent eyes again

With God by my side
I no longer hide

Search my Heart

Search my heart
From the start
Know my anxious thoughts

See in me
Any harmful ways
Where I went astray

Investigate my life O God
Examine and test me
So that I can walk in victory

Get a clear picture
O what I'm about
So that I would have no doubt

See for yourself
If I've done anything wrong
To know where I belong

Lead me in the everlasting Basking in Your presence

Take this heavy load
Guide me
On the road
To eternity

Today I Fly

Sitting on the veranda at five
With only one thing on my mind
How great is thou God

Hearing the birds
The sounds of geese
Pulled me down to my knees

Thank you God
For taking me out of such a hard life

Not realising the suffering had paid
And made me whole

Taking up my cross
Thinking He didn't see
The tests and the fears

The time has come
God will only be on your mind
Giving Him control
And the only prayer
You will have is tears

Then suddenly the gates open
Before you know
You on the other side

God was always there
Directing and guiding

The enemy will come to steal
To try to take what God had healed

But staying in His word Praying
Thanking Him every day
Will make you strong and sing a new song

This is a guarantee you will see
People trying to remind you of
Who you used to be
Or of where they thought you where

But God sees your heart
He knew from the start
What He planned for you
It will come to pass
Nothing can stop Him

Forgive me Lord for being so weak
Such unbelief
But still You kept Your word

Like the birds in the sky
Today I fly

Heavenly Father

Tonight I come before your throne
Heavy hearted confused and torn
How long do I need to wait?
For you to open that gate

I love You Lord
With all my hart
Having faith I understand

My time is not Yours
You know the best
I'm waiting in Your rest

Can't You make an exception please
I'm at my ends Witt
To put me a ease
Give me a dream
A vision A glimpse
Is what I truly need

May His face shine upon you

Another intake
Who the enemy
Tried to brake

Seeing her pain
Seeing the shame
Intervention
Is the name of the game

She became whole
From her body mind
To her soul

Hearing God's word
Singing His song
She realised
Where she'd belong

Who He created
She began to see

Behind those deep dark dead Eyes
A shine began to climb
A smile laughter even a giggle slipping from an inner place She had to face

Renewing of the mind
She'll find
Her Chains are broken
God had spoken

Fearfully marvellous
Uniquely made
Her past started to fade

Only God can change
Her mess into a message
Test into a testimony

Trial into triumph
Victim into victory

Her faith in God
Became bigger than her fears and tears

Today she stands tall
Her wall came crumbling down then
She picked up her crown

My daughters your faith and courage made you whole
Finish the program
So that you
Can use your passion
From out of your soul

The Lord bless you and keep you
The Lord make His face to shine on you
And be gracious to you
May the Lord lift up His face toward you
And give you peace

I love you

Fighting my giants

As I walked to the mountain
Fighting bugs in my face
I see a tractor stuck in a space

Lord that's me
How can I get free?

Just walk up the maintain See me all the way

My back is sore
My strength is pore
Bugs in my face
The baboons
Black dogs give me grace

Steps in front of another
Fighting the giants
All the way
Not looking back
Climbing over the cracks
You pushed me from behind
To see in front what would I find?

On top of the hill
Sitting on a log
You showed me
How to concord my giants
Between the fog

You need to learn
How to fight
Your giants
While keeping Me in sight

As you grow
Your giants grow to
But with my hand
You will defeat they will be band

Your character is what you'll learn
To fight the giants
You will earn but won't burn

Don't get in the ring
Step aside
For the battle is Mine
Your victory so divine

In your hand
I put a plan
You're equipped
I gave you enough
To deal with this stuff

Get grip of who you really are
The enemy sees from a far
Who I created you to be
Recognise the power you have in Me
The enemy is afraid of where you going to be

This attack is a sign
Recognise your power
You going in the right Hour

Be anxious of nothing
Can't you see?
You're moving in your destiny

And feel secure with you

You will feel your boundary in your spirit

A roller coaster ride
No theme park
For me to embark

Twist and turns
Ups and downs
Hardly hitting the ground

Post-acute withdrawal syndrome
Hit Home

Aches and pain
Risk of relapse
What do I have to gain?

Months after recovery
Sober and clean
My neurons that fire together
Wire together
Relieved to know
My body is taking control
PAWS
A feeling that comes and goes

Running natural circuit in brain
Stronger as I hold longer
Not giving in
To PAWS
Recovery soon will be yours

You stood by me

Throughout my healing
You stood by me every single day

Sharing my emotions
A price you had to pay

Haven't met you before
But you were willing to open the door
For me to be free
You wanted to stand by me

On the road to victory
I met you eventually A Son of God
I could see

But being back in the neighbourhood
I never realised it could Be so difficult
In my face
My life I lived before
I've changed but the neighbourhood stayed the same

Having counselling day by day
Then coming back to the neighbour, they say
Will be difficult
A choice I need to make
To take what I've learned step by step each day

I tried to be the same who I was before
Seducing apologising the ways I've done on the floor

Stand up you said
Saying sorry was all you needed to do
For me to see
You truly meant what you said before

That's all I know
It will take time to grow

This Godly Man you are
You have come so far
Resisting the devil
Not giving into evil

I've never had a friend before
Who only wanted my friendship and not like before

The respect I have for you
I have no idea how to treat you
Or how to be a friend

As the tears run down my face
I just pray that God will show me grace

How to make you
My best friend
And loose the only hope
To amend

Thank you for your honesty
For setting boundaries
It gave me security
And hope
That not all men will bind me with a rope

From now on ill pray
For our friendship
In a different way

The 90 day Wall

Waking up with a feeling
I just cannot describe
Another presence close to me
Teasing, knocking, my inner door
Get ready
Prepare for war

Not knowing what it really meant
As the day went by
I found myself wanting to cry

But then my eye caught my cell
It's Anthony my pal
Are you okay
I replied
Anthony I need a guide

The 90 day wall he said
Be careful of what you do
For the next 3 days you going to climb the wall
Or turn back and walk over your vomit once before
And then the games began
Itching anxiety cravings and more
Am I going to open that door

Climbing into my car
Not wanting anyone to see
Thinking of the past fun in a way it didn't seem so astray

Standing in front of the wall
My cravings pulling my back to the door
I'm crying weeping confused and sore
I swore
I would never open that craving door

I hit the wall
I started to crawl
On my knees God help me please
I can't do this anymore

Then God showed me heavens gates
Drinking from His fountain
Sitting at His feet
Eating from His garden
With God I will defeat

I want to go back
I don't want to stay
I want to serve God come what may

Then suddenly the wall came down
With thunder, lightning and a crown

You hit the wall
And never opened the door
The 90 day wall is no more

A Storm

Go back to the place
I showed you grace
There is something you need to face

14 days
As you praise

To build your foundation
A new situation

Around me a storm
God's going to transform

Spiders, Scorpions
Wind blowing rooftops everywhere
I got such a scare

Like a rubber band
In my hand
Ready to let go
I want to show

Before I launch you into your destiny
I need you back on your knee
To trust in me
To see
Without Me
Your calling, vision and mission will not be

Faith must be in place
The foundation of My grace

Then you will no longer
Be moved by the storm
To perform

God is always by your side

Dry Addict syndrome

The road to recovery
The turning point
Like sitting at gunpoint

Struggle and willingness
To break away
An area so grey

From patterns of destructive
Dangerous behaviour
We truly need our saviour

Certainly grounds for respect
And acknowledgement
We reflect

Those who haven't dealt with addiction first hand
May not understand

The long road that lies ahead
A shred of Picking up pieces
Trying to thread

The person may think that once they stop
Their life will miraculously
Sail to the top non stop

However
Recovery is often not that simple
The road to sustained recovery
Is often bumpy and grumpy

The one issue that may arise is known
Resentment toward friends or family
Perhaps anger with negative surroundings
Depression, anxiety, fear of relapse
Cravings while walking up and down the paving

Jealousy of friends who are not struggling with addiction

Jump Poem

These voices
Making a nest
Inside my head

Feeding the villain
Looking to see
What's behind that wall
I'll be free

I'm healed
I'm okay
I don't need another day

Unfinished business
No one knows
Only I can solve
Where I'm going to go

Then the planning began
Not hearing the teachings
Not taking in Just planning to jump
To begin

I'll make it on my own
I've done it before
All I need to do
Is to run through that door

My heart pounding
It's now or never Adrenaline rush
I can do this no fuss

It felt good on the other side
A place I know all about
I wanted to shout

But then life began

Temptations Expectations
Old friends
Do you want a line?

A split second
A choice I made
Then my world started to fade

Waking up
On the floor
I saw a steel door
Surrounded by writings
On the wall

Can it be?
I'm not free
Is this the life I chose?
Is this part of me?

Then I heard footsteps
Keys unlocking the door
Stand up
You not welcome anymore

Guilt and shame
The meaning of my name

Dear God can it be
What have I done?
Please help me

His arms wide open
Stand up is what I heard
A brand new day
God had spoken

Forgiveness and mercy
You shall find Repentance and Renewing of your mind

Nothing but the blood of Jesus
Can take away
Out of my mess
He made a way

Valentine's Day

Waking up
Can it be?
It's Valentine's Day
And I'm free

O God please do something
Special for me

As the day went by Working up and down
I heard my cell ring
It's the gate someone with a crown

Then he stood
In front of me
The man who taught me
About Calvary
To be free

When I looked into his eyes
I knew it was God in disguise

My first love
Bought His dove
Flowers, whispers and a glove

Be careful Guard your heart
For what you desire will start

Today I'm showing you
That I'm God
And I listen to your heart

I'll send my warrior from far away
To bring you flowers

Just because I'm God
Your first love

Happy Valentine's day

Table before your enemies

Speeding over the ocean
Full throttle between electric power lines
Over the train line
In the clouds
Time stayed behind

Feeling anxious excited
Get ready Get ready Get ready

With a brick between my ribs
Pressure in my spirit
I'm ready to burst

Jezebel on the side
Giants in the way
For a moment forgetting to focus
On the one who planned my way

Up and down
Walking around
Labour pains in the way

This is the moment
This is the time
My victory so divine

100 fold He said
For leaving everyone behind
To follow Me and hear
What's on My mind

I feel it in my spirit
I feel it in the air
It's just every where

Bring Me in remembrance
Call your destiny
It's yours
Because I'm preparing a table

Before your enemy

As God anointed my head with oil - Poem

As I came into your presence
You anointed my head with oil
Lifting the vessel
Over my head
Oil streaming down like a thread

Receive the flow of oil
First a price I had to pay
Pain, agony, hardship
Suffering, death
Struggle every single day

Soaking in your presence
Let it flow Let it flow
Healed inside and out
I had no doubt

Fresh oil
The glory of God flowing
Bringing forth freshness and glowing

Splendour beauty
Raised like an eagle
Boldness roaring like a lion
On the horizon

Supernatural breakthrough
As king and Royal Priesthood
Blessed to be a blessing
For others each day
God will bring come what may

Wisdom of Jesus in me
Overflowing in my life I will see

In all areas a long life with spice

Enlarging His vision
Great things and provision
Signs and wonders
A sudden shift and swift

God Use me
Wherever Your treasure
No measure

I receive your anointing
Feeling Your touch
I hear You God
As You stir my heart

Walking with You
Not letting go
God help me to glow

Won't miss out
As I shout
Clinging onto You
Like glue

Once again on my knee
God please use me

A twist of my imagination

Is this a twist?
Of my imagination
A sensation

A world I created
Out of pain
So complicated

A sudden stab in my chest
Cut right through my flesh down to the bone

I feel you in my back in my side
In my heart from the start
Is it time to apart?

I kept you close by my side
A safe place to hide

You're such a part of me
My love, my fantasy

I've never met her before
I've never even opened that door
Then suddenly you stood in front of me
I nearly fell to the floor
Breath-taking I adore

No more my imagination
Can it be you free?

Standing right in front of me
Such a beauty Intelligent
Sexy
My fantasy became Reality

O God help me

I heard God say
Here she is
Be at ease

No matter what you decide
My love for you the same my dove
No one can take away
For on the cross that day

A choice I made to start over
To see who I really am
A journey without my biggest fan

It's time to let go
But how can it be
The trigger inside of me
Pain so intense
Too much to comprehend
The cycle I need to amend

All I want to be
Is the real me and free
Who God created me to be No fuss no fantasy

Locked up for so long
Coming out is not a song
Where do I belong?

A journey
To discover
Only God and me
Under cover

Jeans

What's up?
Candy rush
The way we spoke
We had such a joke

Remember what I said
Waiting for the right time
For you to come out
Together we fantasised
How it's going to be
And eventually you will be free

You interfered with a lot of my thoughts
Throughout the years
I was so blind
With you on my mind
Not bad in a way
Just gay

Your beautiful blond hair
Intelligent that's not fair to compare

All jokes a side my biggest fan
It's time no more hide

Jeans I created
Out of my pain
Twisted complicated
Too much to explain
What I want to do
Is speak the truth
From abuse to my youth
You know exactly what I mean
That day you came on the scene

From that day you started to say
I think a different way

The voices in my head
Made me so scared

Do you realise
The suffering
The disguise
The relationships I lost
The cost

From inside, you pushed and pushed till I cried Carrying you inside
I had to hide

No more
I'm closing that door
I'm pulling the plug
Before you go
I need a hug

Remember you not forgotten
So listen carefully
Just no longer part of me
My heart is wrapped in cotton
Only for God to see

Know that I am God

Trust God First

Anxious scared what if Sweating heart pounding
Clinging to other to feed need and love
Manipulate the situation
Self-sufficient
Human council takes priority

Sleepless nights
Toss and turn
Our beds burn
Lying awake at night

Take charge without prayer
Doubt Biblical principles and promises
We call on others to help

We hurry ahead
And do not wait

Rest on His promise
Trust in the Lord with all your heart
The Lord is my strength and shield
In Him my heart trusts

Do not be anxious about your life
Put your trust in Him
To those who knows His name

Jesus Christ in the same
Yesterday Today and forever

May the Lord fill you with Joy
Peace in believing

For those who love the Lord

All things work out for good

When you trust in the Lord
Your heart will be firm
And will not be afraid of bad news

Be strong and courageous
Do not be frightened
Do not be dismayed
For the Lord your God is with you
Wherever you go

Do not fear
Only believe

With your mind on God
You stay in perfect peace
Because you trust in Him

Delight yourself in the Lord
He will give you
The desires of your heart

Commit your way
Unto the Lord
Trust in Him
And He will act

Righteousness and justice He brings forth

Without faith
It's impossible to please God
Believe He exists and He will reward Fear not
For I am with you
For I am your God

I will strengthen you
I will help you
I will uphold you
With my righteous right hand

Do not be anxious about anything
But by prayer and supplication
With thanks giving
Let your requests be made known to God
And the peace of God
Which surpasses
All understanding
Will guard your hearts
And your minds in Christ Jesus

I came that they may have life
And have it abundantly

Let not your hearts be troubled
Believe in God
Believe also in Me

Inspired by the Bible

My Beloved

You crossed my path one day
For me just to say
Who is this man
Looking at me that way

He looks at me
Through Jesus's eyes

With a question in my soul
He looks at me and makes me believe I am whole

He gives me love
Expecting nothing in return
I felt my heart burn

Unconditionally
Unprepared
A deep intense feeling
That does not make me scared

Feeling safe when he's near
I have no fear

The way he shines
The way he guides
The way he dines

Can it be
This love inside of me
Has always been
He shows me true love
Love from above

He handed me all he had
And said
My angel
Your husband is my name he proclaimed

Then he took my ring

I'll wait for my beloved
And replaced it with a covenant ring

With God by our side
Hand in Hand
We will serve our King
With the symbol of our rings

Heart Circumcision

I'm not good enough
Abandoned, not worthy to be loved
Self-sabotaging, martyr, scapegoat

Renewing of the mind I'll find Revelation I'm God's creation
Not my imagination reject or sensation

As I stood in front
Of the warrior from far away
As we pray

I felt a knife cutting into my life
From my side to my heart
Suffocating my chest
An urge a peep of where devastation lies

An abortion of my soul
Ripped out of the big whole
The addiction cycle began

No more guilt and shame
God's love died for His dove
On Calvary that day
An intimate relationship with God I found
As I lay open before His throne

Empty open raw inside
A pain I cannot describe

As he prayed for my imagination
Going to God
Letting her be
It fell all over me

I felt God's love
His blood flowing through my veins
A dove descending on me

What happened?
I can't comprehend
All I know is God came to amend

Womanly Feminine free indeed
Independent Compassionate Mature
Warm and gracious is her blessings
Strong in Jesus you will find Turning her mess into a message combined

Body, mind and soul
He began to make me whole

Climbing out The Big Black Hole

Filling the void within myself
Internal black hole
A role in my soul
Fill this begging bowl
So that I can feel whole

Peeling back the layers of his game
Face to show no fame
The rotten core
Of what exists below

Asking for more
A dark emptiness that demands to be filled

Dancing around the edge of the black hole
"You cannot leave a place you have never been" whole

I was touching the edge of it from time to time
And pulling back
When it felt too scary
Ready to bury

I continued to feed whatever it asked for
When it all got too much
Seeing himself as a failure untouched

Weak and broken
In disguise / As no one knows Unspoken
Retreat to the shadows?
Hiding my face
In disgrace

I pray to keep Hell away
Hanging my head
Feeling scared

Drown my fear
Till you all just Disappear

I am afraid, abandoned, and alone
This black hole pulls whatever it can to the bone

In hope of filling this void inside
And feeling safe secure denied

Around the edge of the void
Was a fearful angst intensify
As a way of reeling me back to justify

But, in the end, the drug will turn on you Consuming all that you are
All that you could ever be Free

It had nothing but a cold, damp existence
It could have used a dose of warm wind assistance
For this I'm packed with shame, full of self-hatred astray
A mainline will make it all go away

The mood within the Black Hole is dreary
Avoid feeling these emotions
That numbed my mind

Pretty much anything else to hand
As a means of distancing and distracting my brand
Any sense of completeness will soon drain away
The problem is at the bottom of this begging bowl
Is a hole
Leaving us feeling empty, and hollow

Then the begging starts again
Never satisfied

Stop reaching outside of yourself
For something to complete you
Be able to face your fear

When it draws near

It would lose its hold over you
It only wanted to see
The very thing you were attempting to escape from Fear to be free

The big black hole
Is a longing to come home
Finding Wholeness
Facing the big black hole
You found your soul

One at a time
The door of your heart
Is now open to receive
What God started He will achieve

I climbed out of the big black hole
I got back on my feet
With God
You will defeat

Now my goal
To jump back into the hole
To show others the way
I have found strength and purpose
And not going astray

Thanks to my big black hole experiences
Humility is an essential utility

In your pursuit of spiritual transformation
Conformation

With God is the only way out of the Big Black whole
No doubt

A virus
From land to sea

All around
You will find

The enemy
We cannot see
But we must believe
That the virus is here trying to achieve

People running up and down
To see what they can find

With masks and gloves
Sanitizers everywhere
Looking scared
Trying to compare

Then suddenly silence hit the world
Lockdown it's called

No more hugs
No more kisses
Distance is all we share

As I looked down to see
What is this shadow following me

A warm embrace

It's God's Grace
With a smile on my face
I realised it's time
For 21 days God divine

Needing Hope to cope
How to fight with what might Listen carefully don't lose sight

Quiet time is what we need
Praise and worship to Meditating on His word
Through this we will succeed

To fill our love tanks to the brim
In this time of need
We will realise that Only God can achieve

Investigate my life O God
So cross examine and test me
Guide me on the road
To eternity

With a clean heart
A new start
God will never depart

Eat the scroll

As I opened my mouth
He caused me to eat the scroll
Bit by bit making me whole

Feeding my belly
Filling my stomach
A feast so sweet

Like honey and sweetness
Lamentation mourning and woe bitter
But God's words were dinner

Message given by God
Prophet assimilated
Digested and consumed
Chewing down
On His message spoon by spoon

To speak with meaning and power
Taking time to fill my heart
Personally taste it every hour
Making it part from the start

Thinking, feeling with clarity
Asking the Lord
To make it my sword

To teach me
Eat before I speak
So that I would not be weak

Fill my mind
Rule my heart
Guide my steps to not apart

The word being part of my every being Then equipped to share the message with meaning
Your precious living bread
Thread by thread

After I have eaten, Lord,
And on Your Word have fed,
Help me share with others from
Your precious, living bread

Eyebrow lifts

Seems so cruel
Is this the rule?

People attack you first
Then figure you out later a vindicator

What do they have to gain?
Is this their frame?
Love to see your pain?

Trying to twist your past
In front of their mask

God can it be?
Why would they do that to me?
Don't they know you set me free?

If you can stand
The eyebrow lifts
The hand that tries to band
The gossip the unbelief
Out of their grief

Then I, can take you further
Along the way you'll see
A table set before your enemy

Lost the COVID way

More and more
News each day
Of people who lost a battle
The COVID way

Tears streaming down my face
Such a disgrace

The most difficult poem to write
Trying to not lose sight

Another angel in heaven today
Entering heaven's gate
Sitting at His throne
No more alone

I can only imagine
What heaven would be Safe and free

On my knee
God help us please
Those left behind
To Find
Comfort in agony

A touch of the Masters hand
While trying to understand

Gave me sight
Not to lose might But to fight

The invisible enemy

Will no longer be

Day by Day

As we pray

Moving further away

Passover

Out of Egypt
Into the promised land
40 days we stand

So take this bread
With faith look ahead

Judge worthy of His works as I kneeled
By His stripes I am healed

Through His grace
I'm renewed and can face

Time of Celebration
With this cup His blood
A new covenant shed for me
Remission of my sins I'm free

So lead your people
With courage, hope and faith
Only through Christ
Entering into the Promised Land
By His grace
You will see
The Promised Land indeed

Signet Ring

Before Your throne I stand
As You held out the golden Sceptre
In Your right hand

Then Ester came
And gave me the signet ring
From the King

Uriel by my side
As I sat on Gods White Horse
Through the Holy Spirit
I release the angels to enforce

With the Cyrus in me
Ill step up as an Ester

With the Sceptre
Giving me access
I know what I ask
Will come to pass
To Your throne of grace
I may face

With the signet ring
Jesus Christ

Applying to what You Placed
In my hart

On my knee
I thank God

For what He gave me

This ring
The Sceptre
Uriel
and
A dream
To the extreme

No more a mystery

Mercy

Mercy a redemptive gift
Connects with the heart of God

Able to pick out people
Who are troubled and play their hard

Strong to worship
Easy to enter
The presence of God not hard

Stubborn in the nicest way
Safe, sensitive, loves beauty, come what may

Mercy warfare
Strategy to train
Basal Ganglia in the middle of the brain

Parallel with gifts
Responsible for habits and gadgets
Repetitive behaviours
And things

Before I knew who I was
The enemy twisted this gift
Repetitive sins
Addictions
Co-dependant to contradictions

But the Fear of the Lord
Made me see
That I really can be free

Turning on my DNA song
This is where I belong

Thank you God
For this Gift
You placed Inside of me

Friends who care

Don't lose sight
Or you going to fight

For the enemy
Walks around
Opening a door

Being tormented
In His name

With God the Father

Praying and playing
Checking up to see

Friends who care

When I'm weak
He is strong
How can I go wrong?

Stepping in we declare war

Humbly I bow down
Again I take the crown
On my knees

The chains are broken
God has spoken

Don't just open that door

Trying to be the perfect one
Looking for love and fantasy
Searching to fill the void in me

Exchange I will find that love combined
It fills my inner being seeing another human being Venerable and dreaming

Talking in a little girls voice
Rolling my fingers through my hair
He has no choice but to give me whatever I voiced

At that moment I'm not free
I'm that little girl inside of me

To everyone
Who open that door

You were with a small innocent girl
Who was scared searching for survival
Who lived on denial

She was used abused and they amused
To get rid of the guilt and shame
But today I proclaim
No longer a game

Be careful who you entertain
Don't just open the door

For some would not be as lucky as me
And would maybe take their own life to be free

Author: Charlotte Viljoen

Emotional & Verbal abuse

Who do you think you are Talking to me that way
Because of your past
Because of your pain
Don't you have any shame

Do you hear yourself
As you speak
Yelling words
That make me meek

Because of your pain
You try to gain
Control, manipulation, restrain

But in your eyes
I see an empty space
A place you need to face

I do not deserve
The way you speak
Trying to get
To the core of my soul
Cutting my heart
Tearing us apart

A little secret
Let me say
You only digging a deeper place
Talking to me that way
What a disgrace

But then I realised
Setting boundaries

Protecting my heart
God loves you
Never will He depart

On my knees
Lord help us please

Show me the way
So that we won't go astray

For the plans I have for you
As I pray
Come what may
The devil can't stay

Get behind us
You under our feet
No more do you belong
Hearing fight my battle song

Covered with His blood
Fighting the battles for me
We are free
Walking in victory

My 12 Steps of recovery

Admitting I have no power
Unmanageable recognizing the hour

I've come to believe
Only the blood of Jesus can achieve

Then made a decision
To turn my will and life
God is my mission

Search me O God and know my heart.....

Ps 139 v 23 + 24

I admitted to God, myself and other's
The exact nature of my wrongs
Towards my brother

I'm ready
To have God remove Whatever He needs to do
To make me improve

I made a list of persons
That I have wronged before
And made amends too open that door

Personal inventory
Self-monitoring That way
Not to go astray
and when I am wrong
I promptly admit it through a poem or song

Through prayer and meditation

I seek to improve my relationship with God
as I understand God, praying only for knowledge of God's will for my life and the power to carry that out

Having had a spiritual awakening
As the result of these steps I took 11

I try to carry this message
To others and to practice these principles too

With God by my side His infinite Grace
Mercy and love
Step by step day by day we walk
In victory come what may

From the Fathers heart

The beauty in your eyes
Make me so proud of My creation
Who you turned out to be
To My satisfaction
You will reach your destiny

Sometimes You forget
Who I really am
I am THE I am
The God of ALL eternity

My Child
I need you to feel
My heart beat
To truly sit by My feet

It's not what you know
It's not what you read
I want an intimate relationship
Indeed

I desire for you
To feel the fire

For you to truly trust me
To look around
And admire

Use your senses
Feel Me now
What I have for you
Has no fence

I'll give you the fountain

I'll give you the key
All I want is for you
To sit on my knee

Give me your heart
And take mine tonight
You will no longer
Need to fight

My righteous one
Come to your Father
With open arms
Leave your worries
Leave your tears

From now on You'll walk
In authority and power
Knowing NOTHING is impossible
With Me on the hour

My perfect one
A STREAM of LIVING WATER
Bringing order

Life I gave
You will see
Walk now in victory

From the Father's heart

God heard my cry

Never in my life
Have I met you before
But you held your arms wide
And opened your door

A man sent from God
Could it be
You heard His voice
As I fell on my knee

God help me please
I cannot get by
As I stand in faith
While I cry

Then God sent his son
A child of God
To fix my car

No strings attached
Not lashed

Only to realise
God heard me cry

Hy soek n vrou

Hy soek n vrou
Om saam huis te bou
Wat hom in liefde kan toevou

Saam met ons Vader
Kom ons nader
Met ons kinders, kleinkinders, familie en vriende Geseend as voorbeeld te benader

n Man van staal
n Man van goud
Wat die Here dien
Kan ek niks meer vra
As om opgewonde te sien
Wat ons Vader beraam

N Dogter van die Allerhoogste Dis wie ek is Skoon gewas
Wat jou deur Jesus se oë sal verras

In my binnekamer
Bid ek nou
Dat die Vader
Jou hart sal beskerm
Hom of jou sal ontverm

Om n huis n paradys te maak
My deur staan altyd oop
Onthaal warm en snoesig
Ek kan kook

Biltong kan ek maak
Ag wat maak dit saak

Bereid om lief te he Sal n voorreg wees om jou
Aan my sy te he

Jesus my pel

Met my bersie in my hand
En my dummy aan die kant

Rus ek agteroor
Terwyl ek hoor

Hoe Mamma my vertel
Van Jesus my pel

My Brother

So proud as I watch you in your go cart suit
Ready to conquer the world and in the boot the brick was laid
To give you speed
Down Lenchen way

That's how I remember
The times we had
The train set in the garage
Flying a mirage

Putting you in a box
Trying to make you fly
Pushing you out of the tree
Sister and me

Screaming Jesus help my
You jumped and grabbed the wheel
As my brakes failed and squealed

Thank you for being my brother
I love you just as you are Helping whenever I fainted
Taking responsibility
That felt so great

Because of my insecurities
Because of my co-dependencies
My truth that I believed Stole the bond we could have achieved

I'm sorry for taking time
For shutting the door

And so much more

Still you found it through the war
To draw close and open your door

I thank you for your honesty
When talking and looking at me

Please could you forgive me
From now on I'll be walking with the Cyrus in me

My Sister

I don't think you understand the love I have for you
Admiring your ability and your intelligence too

Growing up seeing
The fish you ordered
And the salad wanting some too

Having the room next to Mommy
I was jealous of the bathroom and you
Being a big sister looked like something I'd like to do

The lies I believed in me
From small I could not see Who I was created to be

I denied who I was
And became dependant on others opinion of me
Fed on others happiness trying to please with gifts and ease

Today I realise
Not going to deny
For all the years I fed on other people's lives

I enjoy the spritzers at the clubhouse
Catching up and getting advice

In all honesty
You were there for me

I ask your forgiveness

And thank you for the time
You spent so divine

Met my arms om gevou

Ek wag vir jou
Kom tog gou

Hier's n soentjie vir jou

Terwyl ek wag

Dankie Vader vir die nag
Maak my oogies toe en wag

Vir my ouers om nag te sê
Dan praat ek solank met U terwyl ek lê

Your dedication so true

I've seen your struggle
I've seen your care

But what I found in you
Your dedication so true

Your task and calling

I'm pleased to say
You have reached physical and mental maturity
You're on your way
To handle major responsibility
Come what may

You grew in stature and wisdom

This is your time
To shine

You ripe for leadership to reign
I proclaim

It was in your heart
From the start

You will see victory

You will see

Climbing Out of A Black Hole

By Guest Author - Kevin Repass | Sat, Apr 6, 2019 at 7:00 am

The parable of the alcoholic stuck in a hole has always resonated deeply with me. Before I mustered up the courage to go into detox and treatment, I found myself stuck in a black hole for the second time in my life. I did not think I would make it out alive this time. The story of the alcoholic stuck in a hole goes like this:

A drunk fell in a hole and couldn't get out. A businessman went by. The drunk called out for help. The businessman threw him some money and told him get yourself a ladder. But the drunk could not find a ladder in this hole he was in.

A doctor walked by. The drunk said, "Help, I can't get out." The doctor gave him drugs and said, "Take this, it will relieve the pain." The drunk said, "Thanks" but when the pills ran out, he was still in the hole.

A renowned psychiatrist rode by and heard the drunk's cries for help. He stopped and said, "How did you get there? Were you born there? Were you put there by your parents? Tell me about yourself; it will alleviate your sense of loneliness." So the drunk talked with him for an hour, then the psychiatrist had to leave, but he said he'd be back next week. The drunk thanked him, but he was still in his hole.

A priest came by and the drunk called for help. The priest gave him a Bible and said "I'll say a prayer for you." He got down on his knees and prayed for the drunk, then left. The drunk was very grateful, he read the Bible, but he was still stuck in that hole.

A recovering alcoholic happened to be passing by. The drunk cried out, "Hey, help me, I'm stuck in this hole." Right away, the recovering alcoholic jumped in the hole with him. The drunk said, "What are you doing? Now we're both stuck here." But the recovering alcoholic said, "It's okay, I've been here before, I know how to get out."

"Theophostic Ministry is not about growing in knowledge but rather receiving a specific truth for the displacement of a specific lie. Theophostic healing releases us so that we might be able to appropriate the truths of scripture we logically know." Ed M Smith

"The LORD bless you and keep you; the LORD make his face shine upon you and be gracious to you; the LORD turn his face toward you and give you peace." Numbers 6:24–26.
